1. Letter No. 828/SL. dated 10th September 24 and its enclosures from this office to the official Receiver.
2. His letter No.93 dated 26th January 1925.

Letter No.93 dated 26th January 1925 from the Official Receiver,
C & M Station, Bangalore to the Comptroller of Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your letter No.828/SL. I have the honour to state that though the name of my office may not be included in Appendix III of the Government of India Security Manual, still I would come in under the category of bodies corporate under Clause 2 of Para 45 of Chapter V of the Manual.

The Bonds hitherto bought by me as Official Receiver, were purchased for the benefit of the ~~bank~~ estate of the late Mr.H.R.Kanga and all of them, with the exception of those sent to you by the Bank of Mysore on my behalf, were endorsed over by me to Mrs.Kanga.

If you are yet of opinion that the Official Receiver cannot as such hold Bonds in his official capacity, may I request you, under Section 11 of the ^{Law} corresponding to the Indian Securities Act, in force in Mysore to issue a renewed security to me in the place of the Bonds of the value of Rs.475/- now sent. Rule 7 of Appendix II appears to contemplate this course in cases of doubt on your part.

I suggest this course in order to avoid further delay as the estate was closed long ago but for these Bonds. I am prepared to pay the necessary fees on these Bonds on hearing from you as to whether you consider it necessary.

Thanking you in anticipation.
